

NEW Community Space Tenancy Opportunity at 209 Mavety Street

The City of Toronto is inviting one community organization to fill an available space at 209 Mavety Street ("The Property"). The Property provides 25,973ft<sup>2</sup> (2,413m<sup>2</sup>) of space for an eligible organization (the "tenant agency") to provide a range of health and social services under the Community Space Tenancy Program.

To apply for this Community Space Tenancy, all organizations must submit a Request for Expression of Interest (REOI) application. This REOI application will be issued and discussed at the mandatory online information session on February 12th, 2021 from 1:00-3:30 PM. Please note that applications from organizations that do not attend this mandatory online information session will not be considered.

Please register by February 10th noon by emailing Desiré Robertson, Coordinator of Community Programs, via email at Desire.Robertson@toronto.ca. Please note that only organizations that have registered to attend will be provided with the link to access the mandatory online information session. Organizations must attend this online information session in order to be eligible to submit a Request for Expression of Interest application. The link to the mandatory online information will be provided to you when you register.
